

Tarikul Islam, General Manager, EDW & Analytics, Information Technology, Robi Axiata, Bangladesh

Tarikul Islam has 11 years of professional experience in design, implementation and project management of big data solutions, enterprise data warehouse, business intelligence, predictive analysis, campaign management and contextual marketing solutions in two major telecommunications operators in Bangladesh. Proven experience of providing leadership and strategic vision to big data, customer analytics, and BI transformation journey. Mentoring data warehouse and analytics team in implementing new and innovative algorithms, identifying potential new analytical opportunities, new data sources. Driving through changes to improve overall data quality.